

Mission Statement

At Prism Counseling & Advocacy, we create freedom for *2SLGTBQIA+ people through transparent, affirming, safe, and harm-reduction focused service provision.

Our values of safety and liberation create a world where living authentically and access to resources is possible for every person in our community.

We create self-efficacy through empowerment & collaboration.

Guiding Principles

All people should have the freedom and resources to determine who they are and have self-efficacy.

Safety, liberation, and empowerment are the cornerstones of clinical practice.

Community is imperative to healing.

Power is to be shared and held by the people

Dismantling structures that harm clients is a non-negotiable part of our work.

Staff are accountable, transparent, and responsible in their use of power.

Decolonization and anti-imperialism drive the liberation of marginalized people.

Provision of affirming and comprehensive care is the forefront of the mission.

Intentionalism and self-awareness are critical to good therapy.

Collaboration and feedback promote growth.

All staff honor confidentiality and maintain their skills through continued education.

Love, healing, and transformative justice are the soul of the agency.
